

Edmund Greiner is a Senior Legal Counsel at Fugro. Edmund started his position at Fugro in March 2020. He heads up the Fleet Services legal team which is responsible for the management of Fugro's 30 specialist research vessels. Fugro also operate a number of unmanned vessels out of three remote operating centres around the world.

Prior to joining Fugro Edmund practiced as a specialist Admiralty Lawyer in Cape Town, South Africa for some 20 years. He is a former secretary and president of the South African Maritime Law Association.