

Prof. Dr. Klaus Ramming, has spent seven years at sea, ultimately as a chief mate, and holds a Master's License for unlimited worldwide trade. After studying in Hamburg he was admitted to the bar in 1995 and immediately joined Lebuhn & Puchta. He has specialized and practices in transport law and in particular in all fields of maritime law. Klaus has published many recognized articles on a variety of issues in transport law, maritime law and other fields. He also published three books on Contracts of Carriage on Inland Waterways (2009), on Multimodal Transport (2011) and Maritime Law, Volume 1 (2017), (in German language). He is the co-editor of "Recht der Transportwirtschaft", the leading legal magazine focusing on transport law. Klaus is the President of the German Maritime Law Association, a Titulary Member of CMI and a regular lecturer on maritime law at the Hamburg University.