

Koshi Okuda has served as the Executive Director of the Petroleum Maritime Association of Japan (PIMA) since 2024. The Association functions as the contributing organization to the International Oil Pollution Compensation Funds (IOPC Funds). He also serves as a member of the Executive Committee of the Oil Companies International Marine Forum (OCIMF). He has been engaged in various energy-related tasks throughout his career. His experience includes chartering and shipping of crude oil products, and business planning, with a primary focus on supply chain management over 30 years, in the largest oil company in Japan, ENEOS. From 2018 to 2022, he served as the Secretary General at Japan biofuels supply LLP., overseeing the import and domestic procurement of biomass fuel, the development of receiving facilities, and transportation for union members.

