

Pietro Palandri

Pietro Palandri is the Senior Partner of Studio Legale Mordiglia in Genoa (Italy). He is Vice President of the Italian NMLA (AIDIM - Associazione Italiana di Diritto Marittimo) and member of the board of EMLO (European Maritime Law Organization). Pietro Palandri specializes in shipping and transport law and has been appointed by shipowners and insurers to deal with major casualties such as the COSTA CONCORDIA, the JOLLY NERO and the NORMAN ATLANTIC. He frequently acts as an arbitrator and as an expert witness on matters of Italian law in foreign judicial and arbitration proceedings. Pietro Palandri's professional experience extends to insurance, sale and purchase of ships, shipbuilding contracts and ship financing. He has published articles for Diritto Marittimo and for other foreign publications. He has made presentations at conferences and conventions in Italy and abroad.