

Haris Zografakis is a partner at the London office of Stephenson Harwood LLP and Chair of the Maritime Decarbonisation IWG. Over a period of more than 30 years, he has dealt with all aspects of shipping and international maritime trade. He is also a leading expert in the contractual aspects of maritime decarbonisation, acting for NGOs, organisations and companies from across the spectrum of the maritime supply chain. His decarbonisation expertise contributed to his recognition by Lloyd's List as one of the world's top ten maritime lawyers of 2023.
