

Composition of the Working Group

Richard Neylon (UK) - Chair Emeka Akabogu (Nigeria) Charles Buss (UK) Patrick Griggs (UK) John Kimball (USA) Louis Mbanefo (Nigeria) Lene-Camilla Nordlie (Norway) Pietro Palandri (Italy) Ian Ralby (USA) Lars Rosenberg Overby (Denmark) Andrew Taylor (UK) Michelle Wiese Bockmann (UK)

Richard Neylon

Partner, HFW London

Shipping

Head of Complex Environments

richard.neylon@hfw.com

www.hfw.com

www.hfw.com/Complex-Environments

HFW Shipping

- "Dark Fleet"
- Piracy (East Africa, West Africa, Caribbean, South-East Asia)
- Russia / Ukraine War
- Houthis / Red Sea
- Human Rights at Sea
- Treatment of seafarers during a detention / following a major casualty
- Issues and concerns arising from fraudulent vessel registrations

- Tom Starr, Regional Claims Director, Thomas Miller P&I Ltd, Managers of the UK P&I Club

  The challenges and risks posed by the Dark Fleet and fraudulent maritime activities
- Emeka Akabogu, Principal Partner, Akabogu & Associates
  Blurred lines of sovereignty and self-help in West African maritime security enforcement
- Pietro Palandri, Senior Partner, Studio Legale Mordiglia
   The present status of vessels detained in Ukraine and the application of CTL insurance
- Alexandra Couvadelli, Team Leader Claims London / Senior Lawyer, Gard (UK)
   Detention and imprisonment the recent case law arising from maritime violence

